Mike Abe is a lawyer with more than 24 years experience in city/county government and in private law practice. He has served on the Kaimuki Neighborhood Board for 3 years, and is currently the Chairperson. Mike was endorsed by the Honolulu Advertiser in his first run for public office in 2002 race for the City Council, for his ideas and belief in "open, honest and fair government."

Mike is a candidate "For the People," and will be "A Strong, Independent Voice for Smart Change". His highest priority is improving Public Education. He is also concerned about the Ice, Drug & Crime problem, Health Care and Long Term Care issues, improving Job Opportunities and helping Small Business, and protecting Hawaii's uniqueness and Environment. He believes the State Legislature and Administration, the Counties, and the Federal government, must "Put People First," and work together "For the People."

Mike brings experience, energetic leadership, new ideas, out of the box thinking and creativity, and the ability to communicate with all people.

He was born in Honolulu, and raised in Kaimuki and Hilo and has been married to Audrey for 24 years and they have a daughter, Elizabeth. Mike graduated from Hilo High School, Haverford College, the University of San Francisco School of Law, and Georgetown University School of Law.
